

CAMPUS15 Summer Camp 2014: “Be the change you want to see – Young people go for a joint and peaceful Europe!”

From now on until 31 March 2014 it’s time to apply!!!

The next international CAMPUS15 Summer Camp will take place from 4 to 23 August 2014 at the Malteserhof in Königswinter, close to Bonn. 36 girls and boys aged 15 to 17 years from Bosnia and Herzegovina, Croatia, Germany, Montenegro, Poland and Serbia are invited to participate. This then will be our 11th Summer Camp – and YOU have the chance to join! (more)

Deadline for application is 31 March 2014 (date on post stamp).

In April 2014, the team of counsellors from those six countries will meet at the Malteserhof to prepare the Summer Camp. On this occasion the team will also decide about the allocation of the 36 places for the Summer Camp.

Get to know other cultures and foreign people, exchange your ideas on Human Rights and Anti-Discrimination, Europe and your role in the world and at home with other young people. Have a great time with outside activities like rafting or climbing or team sports, enjoy parties, do creative workshops – theatre, music, art, dance – as well as media projects, and become an open-minded member for discussions on important subjects.

You can find more information on the Summer Camp 2014 as well as the application form here! It’s all in English, since our “camp language” is English!

From now on until 31 March 2014 YOU may send in your application – don’t hesitate!!!
